SOVIET EQUIPMENT, EXPERTS REACH ALBANIA

USSR SHIPS 7 BUSSES -- Tirana, Zeri i Popullit, 13 Aug 50

Tirana (Albanian Telegraphic Agency) -- Within the last few days, seven of the ten busses scheduled to reach Albania this year arrived from the USSR. They will be put into passenger service on the Tirana-Korce and Tirana-Gjino-kaster lines.

The busses were made in the "Stalin" Automobile Factory in Moscow. They are ZIS 155s, of the latest improved model. The trailers have 34 seats.

The driver's seat is an armchair and is designed to prevent tiring of the driver. The busses are well suited to use on Albanian mountain roads. The engines are specially built to eliminate overheating and are safe from fire.

The busses are equipped with all the tools the drivers will need and also with the most important tools for keeping the busses in operation for a long time.

MACHINERY ARRIVES FROM USSR -- Tirana, Bashkimi, 15 Aug 50

Tirana (Albanian Telegraphic Agency) -- Important imports for the Petroleum Combine and for copper mining, industry, transportation, and agriculture arrived from the USSR today on the SS Taras Chervenko. The shipment included motor vehicles, busses, combines, compressors for the copper mine, machinery for the sugar factory, tools for metallurgy, spare parts for motor vehicles and tractors, tires, barrel hoops, farm tools, rails and railroad equipment, magnesite brick, paper, drugs, etc.

480 SOVIET EXPERTS ARRIVE IN ALBANIA -- Belgrade, Borba, 23 Sep 50

Tirana, 22 September -- Recently, 480 Soviet experts arrived in Durres. Some of these experts were Soviet Army officers and were immediately assigned to various Albanian Army units. Others were officials who were assigned to various leading positions in the Central Committee of the Albanian Labor Party, in various organizations, in ministries, and in various administrations.
